Attachment A

Dear Sir:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of recent date concerned with the alleged indebtedness of .

The personal credit affairs of members of this Agency are essentially their own concern and it is assumed that they may ordinarily be depended upon to handle them satisfactorily. While the Agency will not assume the role of collector, it is, however, concerned with assuring that its members honor their just debts.

will be apprised of your complaint and requested to give this matter proper consideration.

Very truly yours,
